Anne Fougeron: 21st Century Edge

“With the Planned Parenthood clinics, I didn’t want clinics that look like a prison. There’s already so much victimization of women... why punish them further by making them come to a jail for basic care? Ninety percent of Planned Parenthood’s business is providing basic care for women who can’t afford it any other way. These women already going through enough in their lives. The clinics should make them feel wanted and safe.”

– Anne Fougeron, FAIA
